

Sharsheret, a national not-for-profit organization supporting Jewish women facing breast cancer, celebrated its fifth anniversary at a benefit luncheon on May 20 at the Sheraton Meadowlands Hotel. More than 300 guests honored mothers, daughters, sisters, and friends of breast cancer survivors. From left are co-chair Sharon Herenstein, honorees Sheera Landsman and Sharona and Ariel Schochet of Teaneck, and co-chair Nikki Sausen.