Nachum spoke with Rochie Shoretz about Sharsheret and the incredible work they do for people dealing with breast cancer. Sharsheret is a national organization of cancer survivors dedicated to addressing the unique concerns of young Jewish women facing breast cancer. Hebrew for "chain," Sharsheret was founded in 2001 by Rochelle Shoretz, a former Law Clerk to United States Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, who recognized the need for a breast cancer organization that would provide culturally sensitive support for Jewish women after her own diagnosis at age 28. Sharsheret is a national not-for-profit organization for young Jewish women and their families facing breast cancer. Their mission is to offer a community of support to women, of all Jewish backgrounds, diagnosed with breast cancer or at increased genetic risk, by fostering culturally-relevant individualized connections with networks of peers, health professionals, and related resources. The annual Sharsheret benefit luncheon "Honoring the Women Who Have Touched Our Lives" will be taking placethis Sunday, May 16, at 10:30 a.m. at the Teaneck Marriott at Glenpointe, in Teaneck, NJ. For more information visit the Sharsheret website here or call: (866) 474-2774
