

THIS IS LIVING WITH CANCER™

Support to help patients live life beyond their diagnosis

This Is Living With Cancer™ is a free online resource developed by Pfizer Oncology for patients, caregivers, and loved ones to help manage various aspects of living with cancer—whether the patient is currently on a Pfizer treatment or not.

This comprehensive program brings together reliable resources, expert guidance, and practical tools on one easy-to-access platform.

This Is Living With Cancer offers articles, videos, and downloadable resources to help educate and inspire patients and their caregivers on topics ranging from cancer types and healthy living to advocacy support.

Advocacy

Connect with community support networks and resources from advocacy organizations that are tailored to cancer type and community.

Understanding Cancer

Learn about cancer terms, types of treatment, clinical trials, and more to help patients better understand their diagnosis.

After Diagnosis

Access practical resources to help navigate a recent diagnosis, prepare for appointments, and find information on financial support.

Health & Wellness

Explore articles and inspiration for healthy living, including tips for staying active, maintaining connections, managing diet, and supporting mental well-being.
